Richmond. Wadison County Kentucky, Wednesday Afternoon, October 29, 1919

ROAD TAX CONTINUES

Report That County Has Money In Road Fund New Is Proven Incorrect Says Treasurer

Reports continue to come in Reports continue to come in KNOXVILLE MAY

And program, and the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court and the state of the pledge of the Fiscal Court a of arranging a road program

an be devised under present laws than that under which the Columbus, O., Oct. 29—Testiextra road tax goes to a vote of the people. There is no excuse for any man who loves his county and wants to see it go forward, to vote against the road

CIRCUIT COURT HEARS

Ras McHone, a young man who was alleged to have burned the school house at Narrow Gap was tried late Tuesday. The jury was unable to agree in his case. McHone said that he heard a noise in the school house while passing there at night, opened a window and lit a match to see what it was He say nothing, and went it was. He saw nothing, and went away. He said that if the building aught fire it was accidental, and that fested at the Caldwell School and

DEMOCRATS GAIN IN

POR cut rate auto repairing have your brakes relined, valves ground arbon cleaned, car greasing, tube vul-anizing, tire changing. All work ruaranteed. Collins' Repair Shop, rear opera House. 281 Jp

THE MARKETS

Chicago 13,000; cattle 50c; lambs

mony teeming with charges of inefficiency, mismanagement, ex-travagance and even against o cers of graft, marked the opening of the Congressional investigation here today of the construc-tion of Camp Sherman.

Circuit court was engaged much of Wednesday morning with trial of several local poolroom keepers who are charged with operating "punch loards." These were alleged by the commonwealth attorneys to be gambling devices.

The Elementary Department of Baptist Sunday School will sell

Much interest is being manifested at the Caldwell School and the had no reason to burn it.

Jeff Harris, colored, was given a year in the penitentiary on a second offense for reelling whisky illegally.

On a agreed judgment Jonah Tustine agree day evening in the auditorium of In the court report Tuesday it was the Caldwell building with a guessing contests. A fortune teller booth will be on hand where a dispenser of news concerning the future will hold forth. weed. The spirit which Reiley portrays Frank V. Nelson, 76 years old, in the poem "When the frost is on former County Clerk of Mercer county for two years, and a Fed-end of the pumpkin and the fodder in the shock," will obtain. The enter-end of heart disease at his flome at great surprises up its sleeve in the way of Hallowe'en antics.

Marion Estell Stone Ruth Walker McKinney Grace Louise Spears Marie Sallie Gentry

The spirit which Reliey portrays in the poem "When the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder in the shock," will obtain. The enter-ound mealtime drink is good old Rookwood coffee. Have you the requirement committee has some the regular meeting of the City County of the City County

FULL INVESTIGATION TO GAIN FRIENDS Louisville, Oct. 29—Cattle 500; FULL INVESTIGATION strong and unchanged; hogs 1,200 75c higher; tops $13.50; sheep 100 steady and unchanged; lambs $12 / PROMISED BY DLACK

ed By Morrow.

(By Associated Press)

that is available for roads, as contracts have been let for road work to cover the full amount.

Madison cannot obtain more and better roads unless more and better roads unless more is allowed. No better or fairer system of apportionment of arranging a road program on be devised under the price charges of mistage of the participate unofficially. Germany and Austria are also with representation but delegates on their way. It is regarded as certain money is allowed. No better or fairer system of apportionment of public affairs made for these goods was lower than the for the goods.

Governor Black, who spoke at the Louise has the Irvine Hume respons, he would not the work of the way. He paid $6,000 for it.

Collins Yates has bought at private sale the Irvine Hume respons, he would not the work of the way. He paid $6,000 for it.

To collins Yates h

Gov. Black pointed out that How-ell's statement was unsworn, not an were loudly applauded by the crowd, which filled all of the seating space erence to these subjects struck a spring, were held by the police to-popular chord with the crowd and reday, and others are being sought ceived much applause.

The local Republican administra-

the Republican nominees in carrying In the court report Tuesday it was stated that Wm. Mockaby was given a sketch by the High School entitled "The Haunted Gate." The high school dramatis personae are as follows:

High School Girls

The Republican nominees in carrying on a campaign of misrepresentation on a campaign of misrepresentation on a campaign of misrepresentation on Regarding the allegation made that school children of Kentucky pay on a campaign of misrepresentation on Regarding the allegation made that school children of Kentucky pay on a campaign of misrepresentation of Regarding the allegation made that school children of Kentucky pay on a campaign of misrepresentation of the calculation of the calc was made in 1916, while the Kentucky contract was not made until 1919, when increased labor wages and ma-terial, prices and other things caused increases in printing costs.

In conclusion Gov. Black made a

1st-Fifi, Kiku, Marchesa. 2nd-Orlova, Barenka, Tumble- in war time.

3rd-Blushing Beauty, Enmity,

REFORM SCHOOL CHARGES FALSE

Cincinnati—Hogs higher, $14; Governor Calis For Full Details State Board of Control Make hicago 13,000; cattle 50c; lambs of "Armstrong Deal" Charg- Complete Answer To Stateof Discredited Howell

GET MARTIAL LAW

Louisville, Oct. 29—Governor that has changed in a remement of a committee of business men and farmers to supervise the country's road program, and the pledge of the Fiscal Court that the money each magisterial particle pays into the special tax, shall be expended upon the roads.

Louisville, Oct. 29—Governor Black today ordered a grand jury investigation of the A. J. S. Arm-strong sale of cloth at $1 a yard to the State Houses of Reform at death there of William H. Higgins death there of William H. Higgins, one of the oldest and best form business men and citizens of Lincoln county. Mr. Higgins was found dead in his barn Wednesday morning of the State Houses of Reform at death there of William H. Higgins one of the oldest and best form business men and citizens of Lincoln county. Mr. Higgins was found dead in his barn Wednesday morning of the State Houses of Reform at death there of William H. Higgins of Lincoln county. Mr. Higgins was found dead in his barn Wednesday morning of the State Houses of Reform at death there of William H. Higgins one of the oldest and best form Eli H. Brown, Jr. and F. Tom Hatcher, who strong barn of Lincoln county. Mr. Higgins was found dead in his barn Wednesday morning. He was a cousin of Mrs. Lewis Neale, of the Houses of Reform, were the state Houses of Reform at death there of Workers of America met here to-day to take final action on President Workers of America met here to-day to take final action on President Workers of America met here to-day to take final action on President Workers of America met here to-day to take final action on President Workers of America met here to-day to take final action on President Workers of America met here to-day to take final action on President Workers of America met here to-day to take final action on President William H. High death there of Control, the State Houses of Reform at the State Houses of Reform at the sale of cloth at $1 a yard to the State Houses of Reform at the sale of cloth at $1 a yard to the State Hous ell's statement was unsworn, not an affidavit, but that careful consideration and investigation would be given it. He declared that Howell was the same man whom Mr. Morrow, the Republican nominee for Governor, had denounced in his opening campaign speech as a man unworthy of holding position and who has since "come into the clutches of the boss-ridden party."

"I will not accept the word of Howell was been and party."

"I will not accept the word of Howell was been there for several weeks."

"I will not accept the word of Howell was the same man whom Mr. Morrow, the Republican nominee for Governor, had denounced in his opening campaign fund if he was promised a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under Black and that he would make no contribution unless such promise was forthcoming. Westerfield the save that he had no promise of a job under been advised by wire of the safe arrival with that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under turning from Europe, where she went with a mission from the Methodist Centenary convention to study after war problems. She has been there for several weeks.

Westerfield with that Gounty and with that Howell offered to give that Howell offered to give vised by wire of the safe arrival with that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under the new administration, that Howell told him he had no promise of a job under of Daviess county, makes affida-

(By Associated Frees) Cleveland, O., Oct. 29—Seven

which filled all of the seating space of the big hall and left many standing in the aisles.

Much stress was placed on the ratifiation of the peace treaty and the League of Nations, which all the speakers proclaimed the most important issue of the State campaign. Refpersons, six men and one woman, BIG SALE IN CLARK in what is expected to be a nation wide clean-up of revolutionists. The Democratic nominee charged Police in several eastern cities have asked the arrest of another man said to be the leader of the

Bolsheviki Hold Petrograd

Berlin, Oct. 29—Anti-Bolshe-Berlin, Oct. 29—Anti-Bolshevist news sources assert General Youdenitch's attack on Petrograd has failed and ostensibly quote him to that effect. Reports from has failed and ostensibly quote him to that effect. Reports from several other sources say he is falling back along the entire line.

Pure Sorghum Molasses $1.50 allon. Neff's Fish and Oyster

Rain or shine, hot or cold,

THE WEATHER Probably rain tonight

PROMINENT STANFORD MAN DIES SUDDÉNLY

Affidavits from the merchants | News was received from Stan-

Reaches New York Safely

the Court House tonight at 7:30.

AND MONTGOMERY

A sale of a portion of the big escuit court, on Saturday atternoon in or a Christmas without toys. Mt. Sterling. A total of 1,245 acres was sold at an average of $179.33 per acre, or for $223.321.

The farm of 305 acres known as at $175.75.

| Henry Ringo, of Mt. Sterling, bought the Hall farm, consisting of 241 1-2 acres, at $221.50 per acre. | Newton Hoskins, of Montgomery county, bought the Lewis farm, consisting of 366 acres, at $168.50 per | Melody of Love City School Orace.

ders of the German government in war time.

The entire sale of 1949 acres brought $291,274-40, averaging about $150. Benton & Davis, attorneys for the Hampton heirs conducted the

and MINERS MEET TO ACT ON WILSON'S APPEAL

Question of Calling Off Coal Strike Up At Indianapolis-Washington Optimistic

Ohio Mine Distaster
(By Associated Press)

Alliance, O., Oct. 29—Word from Amsterdam, 40 miles south of here today said 18 men are entombed in a coal mine there and in danger of suffocation from a fire which is reported raging in the mine.

Alliance, O., Oct. 29—Word from Amsterdam, 40 miles south of here today said 18 men are entombed in a coal mine there and in danger of suffocation from a fire which is reported raging in the mine.

Alliance, O., Oct. 29—Word from Amsterdam, 40 miles south of here today said 18 men are entombed in a coal mine there and in danger of suffocation from a fire which is reported raging in the mine.

Alliance, O., Oct. 29—Word from Amsterdam, 40 miles south of here today said 18 men are entombed in a coal mine there and in danger of suffocation from a fire which is reported raging in the mine.

Alliance, O., Oct. 29—Word from Amsterdam, 40 miles south of here and in danger of suffocation from a fire which is reported raging in the mine.

Alliance, O., Oct. 29—Word from Amsterdam, 40 miles south of here and in danger of suffocation from a fire which is reported raging in the mine.

Alliance, O., Oct. 29—Word from Amsterdam, 40 miles south of here and of here and the suffer of several weeks.

In Clark county the Judy farm of 100 acres on the Mt. Sterling that Governor Black and his assophite was sold at public auction to Jim Oliver at $304 an acre.

The declarations of Gov. Black of his intentions to probe into the grave charges against the Board of Control were loudly applieded by the crowd of the county the Judy farm of 100 acres on the Mt. Sterling that Governor Black and his assophite was sold at public auction to Jim Oliver at $304 an acre.

Don't forget to hear Congress-man Rufus Hardy, of Texas, at the County the Judy farm of 100 acres on the Mt. Sterling that Governor Black and his assophite was sold at public auction to Jim Oliver at $304 an acre.

Don't forget to hear Congress-man Rufus Hardy, of Texas, at the County Hardy (and Hardy) are sufficiently county for the line of prize, a $50 Vietrola. Owen Mc-Kee, Oldham and Rowland, Tom Collins, Leonard Ballard and Elmer Deatherage are also contributors of prizes.

The band will give dignity and splendor to the parade. The business men of the city have retate of the late Andy B. Hampton sponded liberally toward securing was conducted by J. A. Boone, mas- the band. A parade without a ter commissioner of the Clark cir-band is like a woods without birds

At 1:30 .P. M., the Madison High School will be formally opened on the campus of the High the the Spencer place sold to James School. The front porch will be M. Hoskins of Montgomery county, used as a stage and the audience will be seated in the open air. The following program will be ren-

By Power of Right-City School

Melody of Love-City School Orchestra. The American High School-Jas.

Howe. Short Address-President T. J. Coates. Send Me a Rose from Homeland

-City School Orchestra. Education in a Democracy-Dr. J. T. C. Noe.

War Correspondence March-City School Orchestra. Presentation of Prizes-Supt. B. F. Edwards.

Don't forget to hear Congressman Rufus Hardy, of Texas, at the Court House tonight at 7:30.